

Sick people have enough to worry about without paying higher premiums. The Senate tax bill would do just that.

Senators: don't let that happen.

