

This is a sample advance directive. Advance directives vary by state and so it is important to fill out a state-specific advance directive form. It is possible that a living will or durable power of attorney signed in one state may not be recognized in another. Appropriate forms can be obtained from health care providers, legal offices, Offices on Aging, and state health departments.

Name: _____

Date: _____

You have the right to give instructions about your own health care. You also have the right to name someone else to make health care decisions for you. This form also lets you write down your wishes regarding donation of organs and the designation of your primary physician. If you use this form, you may complete or change all or any part of it. You are free to use a different form.

You have the right to change or revoke this advance health care directive at any time

Part 1 – Power of Attorney for Health Care
