20 Stories... Are you up to the Challenge?

The Fight for Air Climb is a unique event where individuals and teams race, run, or walk up 444 steps/20 floors of the Phillips Point West Tower. We host this event to raise funds and awareness for lung disease. We ask you to create a corporate team or a team of family and friends to help the cause. This event is a great way to challenge yourself—whether your goal is to reach the top or be the first across the finish line. Your participation will raise the funds necessary to provide education and research so that we can control asthma, lung cancer, and find a cure. We are working to help those who suffer from lung cancer today and to stop the spread of lung cancer tomorrow. To succeed, we need your support.
