

The “State of Lung Cancer” 2022 report identifies state-specific information around the ways states can best focus their resources to decrease the toll of lung cancer.

Highlighted Disparity

No racial disparities were found in West Virginia for these lung cancer metrics.

New Cases

- 50 out of 51
- Bottom

Survival

- 42 out of 46
- Bottom

Early Diagnosis

- 23 out of 49
- Average

Surgery

- 26 out of 49
- Average

Screening

- 37 out of 51
- Below Average

Lack of Treatment

- 33 out of 49
- Average

Medicaid Fee-for-Service Coverage of Screening

- Covered Using Updated Guidelines

