

Gayle Ann Traver Pulmonary Scholarship

Provided by

This scholarship has been established with an anonymous donation made in honor of Gayle Ann Traver, R.N., M.S.N., a pioneer in the field of pulmonary nursing. She wrote some of the first texts and publications describing nursing's role in the care of respiratory patients. She has inspired advanced practice nurses for decades with her tenacity, dedication and professionalism. It is because of these qualities that we dedicate this scholarship in her name. It is the donor's wish that a qualified and deserving nurse or respiratory care practitioner receive financial support towards the goal of advanced education and training in respiratory medicine in order to provide patients with lung disease the highest order of care.

Qualifications

Applicants must have been accepted into a Masters or Doctorate of Nursing or Respiratory Care Practitioner Program and have a cumulative GPA of 3.25 or higher.

Award Amount

Up to $10,000 – 1st year. Funding provided, 2nd year on a sliding scale based on 1st year GPA.

Application Deadline is July 1, 2022. Awardee will be notified by August 15, 2022. Application forms may be obtained at the office of the Dean/Chair of the Nursing Department; or you may apply online at by visting Lung.org and searching “Gayle Ann Traver Pulmonary Scholarship.”