

Growing Healthy in Southern California

The American Lung Association in California's latest analysis of the benefits of smart growth focuses on Southern California. This new data quantifies the public health, environmental and petroleum reduction benefits possible in this region through a 20 percent reduction in vehicle miles traveled by 2035.

Cumulative Health Damages Avoided, 20 Percent VMT Reduction: 2010 - 2035

